MASTER ECM TERMS

Legal matters

The use of the Master ECM Terms and in particular the choice of variables to be applied to a particular transaction depends on the transaction and AFMA does not accept any responsibility for use of the Master ECM Terms in any transaction.

The foreign investor representations included in the Master ECM Terms need to be confirmed to be current and appropriate before use.

In addition, all applicable foreign selling restriction legends must be provided by the Offeror for inclusion in the relevant offer or selling document (e.g. prospectus, offer booklet, investor presentation, Bloombergs and other investor sales desk communications).

Issuers and lead managers should seek advice of counsel on the requirements and preparation of any notice filings that may be required in connection with offers or sales of securities in Austria, Canada, Malaysia and the United States (such as offers in compliance with Regulation D under the US Securities Act of 1933).

Investors should consult their own counsel to confirm they can make all relevant investor representations.

The Master ECM Terms provided through AFMA are for the convenience and ready reference of users. While every care has been taken in preparing the Master ECM Terms, AFMA does not accept responsibility for any losses suffered by contracting on the terms of the Master ECM Terms. Users of the Master ECM Terms should obtain and rely on their own legal advice as to the suitability, validity and enforceability of the Master ECM Terms.

- 5 The Lead Manager has a financial interest in the success of the Offer and will receive fees as well as other benefits details of which, where required by law, will be set out in the Information Materials. The Lead Manager and its Affiliates may hold Securities or acquire Securities in the Offer, subject to any protocols that may be agreed with the Offeror, the Issuer, as deemed necessary on a case by case basis.
- 6 The Lead Manager is contracting on an arm's-length basis with You and You are solely responsible for making Your own independent judgement in relation to the Offer and neither the Confirmation or these Terms nor the nature of the arrangements under them creates any obligation (fiduciary or otherwise) on the Lead Manager other than those expressly set out in the Confirmation or these Terms.
- 7 The Lead Manager and its Affiliates (together, the Lead Manager Group) carry on a range of businesses on their own account and for their clients, which may include proprietary trading and facilitation trading and providing securities broking, investment advisory, investment management, research, custodial, financial advisory, financing and other commercial and investment banking services to clients. It is possible that the various divisions of the Lead Manager Group that provide these services may hold long or short positions in equity or debt securities of, and other financial products relating to, companies which are or may be involved in the Offer and effect transactions in those securities, their derivative and other financial products for their own account or for the account of their clients. You agree that these divisions may hold such positions and effect such transactions without regard to Your interests.

- 8 The Timetable and the dates or times on the timetable for the Offer set out in the version of the Information Materials provided to You are indicative only and may be changed at any time and the Offer (or a part thereof) may be modified or withdrawn at any time (without consultation with You). You acknowledge that You are bound to acquire Your Allocation notwithstanding any change to the Timetable.
- 9 You are aware that the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the Securities may have tax consequences in Australia and other applicable jurisdictions, which could negatively impact any return realised from the acquisition, ownership or disposition of the Securities. Any discussions of tax issues in information provided by the Offeror, the Issuer or the Lead Manager are not intended to be legal or tax advice to any person and are not intended to be used, and cannot be used, by any person for the purpose of avoiding any tax penalties that may be imposed on that person. - 11 If restrictions on sale apply to the Securities, matching restrictions on transfer may be imposed.
- 12 An investment in the Securities involves a degree of risk. You have considered the risks associated with the Securities (including those disclosed in the Information Materials) in deciding whether to purchase any Securities and acknowledge that an investment in the Securities may result in the loss of Your entire investment.

The Offeror has represented to the Lead Manager that it is not issuing or transferring (as applicable) the Securities with the purpose of You selling or transferring them, or granting, issuing or transferring interests in, or options or warrants over, them.

4 (Issue conditional on securityholder approval)

The issue of the Securities is conditional upon approval by the Offeror's ordinary securityholders. Where ASX Listing Rules apply to the Offeror, the Offeror will disregard votes cast by You or Your associates to approve the issue of the Securities except votes cast as:

- a) confirmed Your holding as at the Record Date is or will be as stated in the Securityholding Declaration;
- b) acknowledged and agreed that:
 - i) determination of eligibility of investors for the purposes of the institutional or retail components of the Entitlement Offer is determined by reference to a number of matters, including legal and regulatory requirements, logistical and registry constraints and the discretion of the Offeror and/or the Lead Manager; and
 - ii) each of the Offeror and the Lead Manager and each of their respective Affiliates disclaim any duty or liability (including for fault or negligence) in respect of that determination and the exercise or otherwise of that discretion, to the maximum extent permitted by law;
- c) authorised the Lead Manager to provide Your name on a confidential basis to nominees eligible to participate in the Offer to ensure that they do not apply for Securities on Your behalf under the retail component of the Offer and that You will provide (or will direct any nominee or custodian acting for You to provide) to the Offeror and the Lead Manager, any information requested by them in order for them to determine and verify the extent of Your or any other person's pro-rata entitlement. If that information is not received by the Lead Manager by the notified time, the Offeror and the Lead Manager may adjust Your pro rata entitlement in their absolute discretion;
- d) elected to either take up all or part of Your pro-rata entitlement in the prescribed form and in accordance with the Timetable and You have irrevocably committed to acquire, and to pay the Price in full and in cleared funds in respect of that number of Securities as set out in the Allocation specified in the Confirmation and in accordance with the Timetable;

You agree that if and to the extent You have any Non-Participation Securities, You will be deemed not to have taken up those Non-Participation Securities and those Non-Participation Securities will be assigned and offered for sale to third parties in a bookbuild process, which may be either an institutional or retail bookbuild process as determined in the discretion of the Offeror and/or the Lead

Manager, as a related issue (within the meaning of ASIC Corporations (Non-Traditional Rights Issues) Instrument 2016/84) ("Assigned Securities") and You will only receive payments for Your Assigned Securities if and to the extent to which the Clearing Price for Your Assigned Securities exceeds the Price (less any applicable costs).

7 (JORC Code may not comply with the relevant guidelines in other countries, and do not comply with SEC Industry Guide 7 or SEC mining property disclosure requirements contained in Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K under the U.S. Securities Act ("Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K"))

It is a requirement of the ASX Listing Rules that the reporting of ore reserves and mineral resources by companies that are listed on a market operated by ASX comply with the Australasian Code for Reporting of Exploration Results, Mineral Resources and Ore Reserves (the "JORC Code"), whereas mining companies in other countries may be required to report their mineral reserves and/or resources in accordance with other guidelines (for example, SEC Industry Guide 7 and Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K in the United States). The SEC adopted Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K effective February 25, 2019 which will rescind and replace SEC Industry Guide 7, however, SEC Industry Guide 7, remains in effect until all SEC registrants are required to comply with Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K from the first full fiscal year beginning on or after January 1, 2021. SEC Industry Guide 7 does not recognize classifications other than "proven (measured)" and "probable (indicated)" reserves and, as a result, the SEC does not permit mining companies to disclose their mineral resources in SEC filings that comply with SEC Industry Guide 7. As a result of the adoption of Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K, the SEC's standards for mining property disclosures are now more closely aligned to the JORC Code requirements. For example, the SEC now recognizes estimates of "measured mineral resources", "indicated mineral resources" and "inferred mineral resources". In addition, the SEC has amended its definitions of "proven mineral reserves" and "probable mineral reserves" to be "substantially similar" to the corresponding standards under the JORC Code. However, despite these similarities, differences remain between the definitions and standards under the JORC Code and those included in SEC Industry Guide 7 and Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K and therefore, there is no assurance that the Offeror's mineral resource and ore reserve estimates and related disclosures prepared under the JORC Code would be the same as those prepared under SEC Industry Guide 7 and Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K.

You acknowledge and agree that while the Offeror's reserve and mineral resource estimates may comply with the JORC Code, they may not comply with the relevant guidelines in other countries (other than NI 43-101 in Canada), and do not comply with SEC Industry Guide 7 or Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K. You further acknowledge and agree that the information contained in the Information Materials describing mineral deposits may not be comparable to similar information made public by companies subject to the reporting and disclosure requirements of U.S. securities laws or any other reporting regime. You should not assume that any part of quantities reported as "resources" will be converted to reserves under the JORC Code, or under SEC Industry Guide 7 or Subpart 1300 of Regulation S-K or any other reporting regime or that these amounts can be economically exploited, particularly material classified as "inferred", and you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on those estimates.

- (d) there may be significant changes between any version of the target market determination provided to You and the final version of the target market determination. You will remain bound by these Terms (and Your Bid will remain binding) despite any such changes. Any draft of the target market determination does not constitute, and does not purport to constitute, the final target market determination and may not contain all of the information that would be required to be included in the final target market determination. The final target market determination supersedes and replaces any draft target market determination in its entirety; and
- (e) You have considered the target market determination in deciding whether to purchase any Securities.
